

Recommended reading list

Coming back to school after a restful break can sometimes make you wish you lived in another world. Here are this week's recommendations with a fantasy theme!

Year 7-8

Warriors: The Broken Code #1 Lost Stars, Erin Hunter

Warrior Cats is very popular in the Reading Realm lately! Packed with action and intrigue, the beginning of this sixth Warriors series is the perfect introduction for new readers and dedicated fans.

All five warrior Clans have settled into their true homes around the lake. But when a shockingly harsh leaf-bare season descends on the forest, a new darkness begins to spread—a shadow that threatens a beloved Clan leader, the cats' connection with their ancestors in StarClan, and the very warrior code they live by.

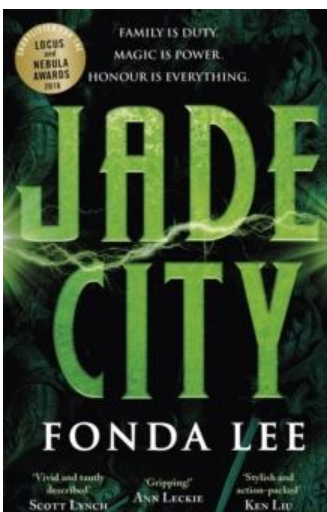

Year 9-10

The Frugal Wizard's Handbook for Surviving Medieval England, Brandon Sanderson

From the great Brandon Sanderson, a book that brings the medieval world to life with a bit of humour.

A man awakes in a clearing in what appears to be medieval England with no memory of who he is, where he came from, or why he is there. His only hope for survival lies in regaining his memories, making allies among the locals, and a guidebook, The Frugal Wizard's Handbook for Surviving Medieval England, except his copy exploded in transit. The few fragments he saved provide clues, but can he figure them out in time to survive?

Year 11-13

Jade City, Fonda Lee

Winner of the World Fantasy Award, this is an epic fantasy in which jade is mined, traded, stolen and killed for in a world under the control of two ruthless clans, No Peak and Mountain. When a modern drug emerges that allows anyone to wield jade, simmering tension between the two families erupts into open violence and clan war. Jade City is an epic tale of blood, family, honour, and of those who live and die by ancient laws in a changing world.
