

Recommended Reading

The Carnegies are the UK's longest running children's book awards.

The Carnegie Medal for Writing is awarded by children's librarians for an outstanding book written in English for young people.

Here are the 8 books shortlisted for the Medal!

The Carnegies

A dystopian novel highlighting the consequences totalitarian extremism and xenophobia.

A haunting story of loss and bereavement.

A bittersweet romance about teen pregnancy that leaves a lasting impression.

Little Bang
Kelly McCaughrain Walker

The Things We Leave Behind
Clare Furniss
Simon & Schuster

The Final Year
Matt Goodfellow
Otter-Barry Books

All That It Ever Meant
Blessing Musariri
Head of Zeus

A moving story of love and family in all manners and modes.

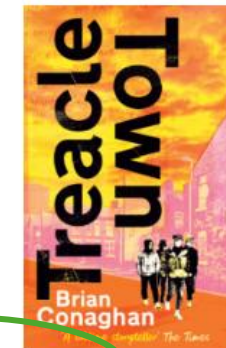

Play
Luke Palmer
Firefly Press

Glasgow Boys
Margaret McDonald
Faber & Faber

King of Nothing
Nathanael Lessore
Bonnier Books

A story reflecting the emotional conflicts of being a teenage boy.

Treacle Town
Brian Conaghan
Andersen Press